Archaic novelty no more: The pipe organ is enjoying a small but lively revival here with aficionados experiencing the instrument in church or public places like the Esplanade. STEPHANIE YAP reports.

page2

Organ master Evelyn Lim at the console of the Esplanade’s pipe organ, the largest pipe organ in Singapore with 4,740 pipes.

Gallery of stars
Portrait photographer Teo Poh Seng’s shots of personalities will be featured in an exhibition. JUNE CHEONG has the details.

page6